

How to Get .Edu Links or Live and Learn

Why You Need .Edu Backlinks

Google juice from authoritative domains

How to Find .Edu Sites

site:.edu - just sites site:.edu + inurl:blog - blogs on .edu sites site:.edu + inurl:forum - forums on .edu sites

How to Contact .Edu Sites

- Contact Form
- Facebook
- Twitter
- LinkedIn
- Whois Email Address

Hire a Professor

- Buddying professor
- Be ready to shell out if not
- Time-consuming, but it's worth it (domain authority and possible traffic)

Pay a Student

- Thin (low-quality) content but
- Still high domain authority (DA) link

Hire a Recent Graduate

- Time-Consuming
- Pricey

Offer Promos

- Small local schools -> T-shirts
- Big educational establishments -> value

Make a Donation

- If your budget allows
- Cooperate with others

Job Boards

- Time-consuming
- Great job opening may help

Offer a Scholarship

- Considerable budget
- Cooperation

Befriend a Librarian

- Time-consuming
- Gift or donation
- Pay a librarian

Broken Links

- Check My Links (Google Chrome extension)
- Xenu's Link Sleuth (free broken link checker)
- Link Juice Recovery Tool (from LinkResearchTools.com)

Edu Blogs for Commenting

- Time-efficient
- Expand your knowledge

Edu Forums for Posting

- Time-consuming (time and amount of posts)
- Expand your knowledge

Get SEO Tips Weekly

Click the link above to subscribe.
Promo code: EDUWEBDESIGN

